

Hapag-Lloyd increases rates from North Europe to Indian Subcontinent and Middle East

October 5, 2023

German container shipping company Hapag-Lloyd will increase its ocean tariff rates from North Europe to India, Pakistan, Red Sea and Arabian Gulf.

In particular, this rate increase will apply for all 20' and 40' dry containers, including high cube equipment, and will be effective from 20 October until further notice.

20' Dry Containers

From	To	Current base rate level	New base rate level	Delta
North Europe	Karachi	US$509	US$609	US$100
North Europe	Nhava Sheva	US$409	US$509	US$100
North Europe	Mundra	US$409	US$509	US$100

From	To	Current base rate level	New base rate level	Delta
North Europe	Chennai / Kattupalli	US$409	US$509	US$100
North Europe	Jeddah	US$386	US$486	US$100
North Europe	Jebel Ali	US$344	US$444	US$100

40' Dry containers (including High Cube)

From	To	Current base rate level	New base rate level	Delta
North Europe	Karachi	US$368	US$468	US$100
North Europe	Nhava Sheva	US$268	US$368	US$100
North Europe	Mundra	US$268	US$368	US$100
North Europe	Chennai / Kattupalli	US$268	US$368	US$100
North Europe	Jeddah	US$222	US$322	US$100
North Europe	Jebel Ali	US$138	US$238	US$100