

Hapag-Lloyd merges Venezuela services

October 18, 2023

Hapag-Lloyd announced that Venezuela Coast Feeder 2 (VC2) and Venezuela Coast Feeder (VCF) services will be merged into one service (New VCF) covering both La Guara and Puerto Cabello with one vessel.

The port rotation of the New VCF service will be Cartagena (Colombia) - Manzanillo (Panama) - La Guaira (Venezuela) - Puerto Cabello (Venezuela) - Cartagena

The new VCF service will keep a bi-weekly coverage and will phase in Cartagena on 15 November with the boxship Netravatia.

Hapag-Lloyd has published the last sailings of VC2 and VCF services, including vessel name, voyage, estimated time of arrival (ETA), port name and corresponding week:
