

OOCL launching additional Transpacific service

Full capacity - OOCL Malaysia transiting the Singapore Strait last week

OOCL is expanding its Asia - Latin America network with a new service linking China, Japan, and Korea with Mexican ports.

Michele Labrut | Apr 29, 2024

The Transpacific Latin Pacific 5 (TLP5) adds to OOCL's the existing TLP1, 2 and 3 services.

The new route will offer direct connections between China, South Korea, and Mexico, with a sailing time of 15 and 20 days from Qingdao to Ensenada and Manzanillo respectively.

Related: OOCL reports 9% revenue drop in Q1

The rotation for the 'TLP5' service is: Pusan - Dalian - Ningbo - Shanghai - Qingdao - Ensenada - Manzanillo - Ensenada - Yokohama - Pusan.

The new service will start from Ningbo on 6 May.

Copyright © 2024. All rights reserved. Seatrade, a trading name of Informa Markets (UK) Limited.