

Here's an update for our Transpacific Services

Our East Coast 4 (EC4) service, which was originally scheduled to resume in week 16, will be postponed until the situation in the Red Sea has stabilised. With your cargo planning in mind, all vessels scheduled to sail on the EC4 service will be reassigned to our East Coast services, which will have rotation updates during the EC4 pause.

For your reference, please find the details, including first calls, Vessel Voyages, Estimated time of Departure (ETD), port and week per service below:
