

ONE expands East Coast South America coverage

Ocean Network Express (ONE) is launching a new Asia – East Coast South America container service.

Michele Labrut, Americas Correspondent

September 18, 2024

Credit: ONE

ONE said the new service dubbed East Coast South America Express 3 (SX3) will provide connectivity to a group of ports on the east coast of South America with Asian terminals.

“We are launching a new service, East Coast South America Express 3 (SX3), which enhances the network and connectivity for the East Coast Asia South America (ECSA) market,” the Singapore-headquartered company said.

The first voyage will be made by the vessel Hyundai Vancouver, which will depart from Pusan, South Korea, on 6 October.

The ships of this service will travel the circuit from Pusan, Shanghai, Ningbo, Shekou, Singapore, Santos, Paranagua, Rio Grande, and Navegantes to return directly to Singapore, connect with Hong Kong, and call again at Pusan.