

Gemini Cooperation: we're looking forward to your bookings

Dear Customer,

We are happy to announce another upcoming key milestone for our Gemini Cooperation: from December 3, 2024, we are opening our bookings on all our services for you.

Gemini Cooperation is a key lever and enabler of our Strategy 2030, supporting our goal of becoming the Undisputed Number One for Quality. With the Gemini Cooperation network, we aim to deliver more than 90% schedule reliability, broad connectivity with our innovative Hub & Spoke Model and increased sustainability to support decarbonizing your supply chain.

Here are a couple of updates that you'll find useful in preparing your bookings:

- Trade Brochure: Find key trade information in the latest East – West Service Network 2025 Trade Highlights overview.
- Service details: Browse each service through our Service Finder, to discover our entire East-West Service Network 2025
- Schedules: Find your preferred port pairs alongside all relevant information in our Schedule. The latest update for February voyages will be available from the Start of Booking.

We look forward to having your cargo on board.

With best regards,

Maria-Fernanda

from our Customer Communications team
