OOCL Notice - New Tariff COI Implementation

Dear valued customer,

Please be informed about an important update regarding our tariff structure.

Effective January 15th, 2025 (cargo receipt date), OOCL will implement a new Change of Information (COI) Fee.

This fee will apply under the following conditions:

- If a weight discrepancy exceeding 2000 kg vs. the booked cargo weight is found upon the container gate-in move, a COI surcharge of 60 EUR per container will be charged.

This measure is being introduced to ensure accurate weight information is captured at the booking stage and to cover the additional operational and administrative costs associated with weight discrepancies.

The correct weight needs to be declared to the terminal prior to gate-in, with a tolerance margin of 2000 kg per container less or more.

IMPORTANT:

Only a digital entry of a VGM prior to gate-in of the container (via EDI or My OOCL Center) would be acceptable to overwrite an incorrect weight provided via the booking request.

Corrected weights via your Shipping Instructions (SI) do not link to the terminal systems and cannot be accepted as alternative.
